5 Are you here to tell us your 'one big thing'?

Your one big thing::

HDC needs to be making stronger recommendations, particularly with private entities e.g. large privately owned rest homes, private hospitals that are profiting of vulnerable people's money. There should be financial repercussions for them, only then they will be motivated to change. These private corporations are big players in industry and there should be more repercussions for them.

Secondly the disability services deals with a lot of unregulated caregivers who can continue to practice despite wrongdoing - HDC should have the statutory power to ban their practice

Lastly the focus should not be on changing the Act or Code, rather Ministry of Health needs to give you more funding, your wait times are beyond unreasonable and people deserve to receive a timely resolution
